Rules

1. Poems must be received on or before Friday 11th August at 5pm.
2. All poems must be the original work of the entrant and should not have been previously published, accepted for publication by a magazine, nor entered in other competitions.
3. The length of each poem must not exceed 40 lines.
4. Each individual poem, regardless of length, must be typed on one sheet of plain A4 paper.
5. The competitor's name must NOT appear on the poem.
6. All poems must be accompanied by a fully completed entry form.
7. Please keep a copy of your poem, as manuscripts cannot be returned.
8. Copyright remains with the author, but Ledbury Poetry Festival reserves the right to have entries performed at the Festival, on radio, TV, or stage, published on the internet, in an anthology or used for publicity purposes at any stage in the future.
9. No acknowledgement of entry will be sent unless the competitor sends an SAE marked 'Acknowledgement'.
10. Competitors wishing to be informed of the results should enclose an SAE marked 'Results'.
11. The decision of the judge is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
12. The Festival reserves the right to withhold prizes if such an action is justified.
13. Entries not complying with competition rules will be disqualified.
14. The winner of the adult first prize will be expected to provide for their own transport arrangements in order to attend the Ty Newydd course in North Wales, regardless of whether they are a UK resident or not.
15. The winner may select from any of the courses available at Ty Newydd. However, the Festival cannot accept responsibility for circumstances beyond its control, which very occasionally might result in courses not being available due to popularity or work taking place on site.
